

100 YEARS OF THE ECUMENICAL MOVEMENT: OPENING HORIZONS FOR THE 21ST CENTURY

An opportunity for Christians together

- to mark the 100th anniversary of the Edinburgh International Mission Conference by looking to what we can take forward and what is changing
- Identifying prospects & signs of hope, new methodologies and challenges

AN ECUMENICAL SYMPOSIUM

with key contributors including

The Revd. Dr. John Gibaut from the World Council of Churches

Dr Gibaut has been the director of the World Council of Churches' Faith and Order Commission since January, 2008. He earned a doctorate in theology from Trinity College and the University of Toronto and has taught in the Faculty of Theology, Saint Paul University, a Roman Catholic University. From 1994 to 2003, he served as the Director of Anglican Studies, Faculty of Theology, and became associate professor of Church History and Secretary of the Faculty in 2004. An experienced educator, at the WCC he seeks to encourage a greater awareness of the work of Faith and Order and of the need for strong ecumenical formation in centres of theological education.
